

Riverside Traveling Training Agenda At-A-Glance

Tuesday, October 25, 2016

9:15 a.m. – 10:45 a.m. – Session #1 (1.5 hrs)

- "2016 Legislative Updates by Coalition of California Welfare Rights Organizations, Inc. and Legal Services for Prisoners with Children" - Presented by Endria Richardson, Legal Services for Prisoners with Children and Kevin Aslanian, Coalition of California Welfare Rights Organizations, Inc. ▪ Room B ▪ 1.5 hours of general MCLE credit.
- "CA's Low-Income Health Programs in a Post-Affordable Care Act World"- Presented by Cori Racela, National Health Law Program and Shirley Sanematsu, Western Center on Law and Poverty. ▪ Room C ▪ 1.5 hours of general MCLE credit

10:45 a.m. – 10:55 a.m. – Break

10:55 a.m. – 12:10 a.m. – Session #2

- "Understanding New Community Development Trends: The Fight to Keep Our Clients Housed" - Presented by Navneet Grewal, Maria Palomares and Lynn Martinez, of Western Center on Law and Poverty. ▪ Room B ▪ 1.25 hours of general MCLE.
- "Community-Based Lawyering" - Presented by Brad Caftel, Insight Center for Community Economic Development ▪ Room C ▪ 1.25 hours of general MCLE.

12:10 p.m. – 1:00 p.m. – Lunch

- Mexican grill buffet
- Awards of Merit Ceremony

1:05 p.m. – 2:20 p.m. – Session #3

- "Home Equity Protection Program" - Presented by Prescott Cole, California Advocates for Nursing Home Reform ▪ Room B ▪ 1.25 hours of general MCLE credit.
- "Medicare Basics for Medi-Cal Advocates" - Presented by Amber Cutler, Justice in Aging. ▪ Room C ▪ 1.25 hours of general MCLE credit.

2:20 p.m. – 2:25 p.m. – Break

All sessions qualify for MCLE credit. The total available MCLE for October 13 is 8 hours and the total available MCLE for October 14 is 7 hours.

LAAC conferences are designed to train advocates to provide adequate legal assistance to eligible clients and to provide advice to any eligible client as to the legal rights of the client. These activities are permissible under 45 CFR § 1612.8(b).

Riverside Traveling Training Agenda At-A-Glance

2:25 p.m. – 3:40 p.m. – Session #4

- "Post-Trial Motion and Writ Remedies in Domestic Violence Restraining Order and Child Custody Proceedings" Presented by Shuray Ghorishi, Family Violence Appellate Project ▪ Room B ▪ 1.25 hours of general MCLE credit.
- "Community-Based Legal Partnerships: A Model for Legal Aids and Systemic Change" - Presented by Jora Trang, Worksafe and Veronica Alverado, Warehouse Workers Resource Center ▪ Room C ▪ 1.25 hours of general MCLE credit

3:40 p.m. – 3:45 p.m. – Break

3:45 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. – Session #5

- "Strategies for Navigating Hard Conversations with Clients and Coworkers" Presented by Chris McConkey and Kim Irish, OneJustice ▪ Room B ▪ 1.25 hours of general MCLE credit
- "Defending Evictions and Terminations from Subsidized Housing" - Presented by Kent Qian, National Housing Law Project ▪ Room C ▪ 1.25 hours of general MCLE credit

If you have any questions about Traveling Training, please contact Jasmine Schwab-Doyle at 510-893-3000 x 101 or JSchwabDoyle@laaonline.org

All sessions qualify for MCLE credit. The total available MCLE for October 13 is 8 hours and the total available MCLE for October 14 is 7 hours.

LAAC conferences are designed to train advocates to provide adequate legal assistance to eligible clients and to provide advice to any eligible client as to the legal rights of the client. These activities are permissible under 45 CFR § 1612.8(b).